Wells Boots.

Grand View Hotel.

Boston Clothing House.

The weather grew a little cooler yesterday.

Remember the services at the Presbyterian church to-night.

A number of cases of fever of a severe character are reported in town.

To-day is thanksgiving. Every body should turn out and attend the thanksgiving services. It, like Christmas only comes once a year, and therefore it should be enjoyed.

The announcement made of a meeting at the Jewett house Tuesday night grew out of a mistake and the general meeting to which every body is invited will be held Saturday night.

A very slight investigation shows as much difference of opinion in the New Town on the proposed organization, as there is usually in any place or any matter. Some favor a special charter; some a general law, and some of the property owners oppose any organization now.

The wool dealers say that there is not nearly so much wool shipped daily as the ten or fifteen car loads reported. The enterprising reporter was trying to ask questions of a much hurried railroad man in regard to shipments while he probably meant to give the total of shipments of all kinds.

MR. A. O. ROBBINS, has just returned from a trip east. He purchased a large stock of the finest wares now made among which is the celebrated Haviland brand of china ware. The goods, consist of Queensware, glassware, Holiday goods of all kinds Haviland French China sets, Chandeliers of the best kind and some of the most beautiful ornamental vases and toilet sets, for Christmas gifts, ever brought to Las Vegas. Go and see for yourselves. Furniture Store near the bridge.

We sincerely regret to know that Mr. Harry J. Glaspell has severed his connection with the Fifth Avenue, for we regard him as one of the best hotel clerks in the west. He goes to Davenport, Iowa, to-day, to visit his home, and then will proceed to Las Vegas, New Mexico, to act as clerk in the large hotel built near there by the Santa Fe road, at the Hot Springs, and known as the Hot Springs Hotel. Mr. Glaspell speaks in the highest terms of the Messrs. Hankla, as gentlemen and hotel proprietors, and only leaves them because he is offered better terms than this city can afford. We wish him the fullest success. —Topoka Daily Capital

Skating Rink.

Let us have a skating rink made for this winter. There is no better sport than skating when the ice is smooth and the crowd large. It will not take such a very great amount of work. There are any amount of good places where such a rink can be made. Any where below the acequias will do. There are young folks enough in town to make such an enterprise eminently successful. Now is the time the matter should be agitated, before the ground freezes so hard as to make such an undertaking difficult if not impossible.

An examination of the revised list of Iowa County Superintendents show that four of her lady superintendents have retired and four others have been elected. Only one of those who retired was succeeded by a lady—Miss J. Kellogg, of Decatur County giving place to Miss Laura V. Dye.

A Newspaper in New Orleans receives on deposit and pays 5 per cent interest on savings. A bank and newspaper combined is a new feature in journalism.

Emperor William recently attended an exhibition of glass ball shooting and praised the invention of American balls as a substitute for pigeons in such sport. He thinks that all human persons must thank the inventor.

George Francis train is described by an exchange as "thin, old and worn out." On the contrary, George Francis Train is as stout as ex-King Cetywayo, as brown as Sitting Bull, and there is not in the whole country a healthier looking gray-headed man of fifty than he. He spends almost every day in his old seat in Madison square.

The great work on the Ingalls investigation, which may have been noticed by any body who may have read the Topoka Capital, has been completed to still greater accuracy, by being bound in pamphlet form.

Thanksgiving Services.

The Rev. H. Forrester will have the usual Thanksgiving service at St. Paul's church at 11 o'clock this morning. It is rumored that this service will be preceded by another that is always interesting—the beautiful marriage service of the Episcopal Church.

Thanksgiving Services.

The Rev. J. A. Annin will preach a Thanksgiving Sermon at the Presbyterian church to-morrow. Services will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The President's Proclamation, fixing the day of thanksgiving and prayer, will be read by W. G. Koogler. All are invited to attend.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Post office, at Las Vegas, N. M., on the 25th day of November, which, if not taken out within 30 days, will be sent to the Dead Letter office, at Washington, D. C. Persons asking for any of these letters will please say "Advertised."
